50th Awards Banquet

This 50th awards banquet promises to be an elegant affair. You may wear your Sunday best or go all out and put on your party attire. Of course era fashion is always a big hit at the banquet.

The “award winning” Marriott North Hotel in Round Rock is a beautiful hotel with a top notch chef. This banquet will be in the ballroom at the hotel where there will be plenty of room for all.

The dinner will be served to you at your table, so no need to call numbers or stand in line. It will truly be a wonderful dining experience.

Please select your entree below and return with your registration.

If you have any questions regarding the meal you can contact Glenda Weaver at gweaver1@austin.rr.com. I will do my best to answer any concerns you may have.
